Section A - Personal Information

Legal Name of Applicant (First, Middle, Last) - This is your legal name as it appears on your birth certificate or BC Government issued ID. If different from your Birth Certificate, please provide Legal Name Change or Marriage Certificate.

Address - This address be must beyour current residential address and match your Proof of Residency.

Gender - Your gender must match the gender on your supporting documents. (Birth Certificate or BC Government issued ID)

Are you a Veteran? - Please check yes if you have previously or are currently serving in the Canadian Armed Forces or RCMP and you would like to be recognized as a Veteran or to participate in our Metis Veterans BC.

Métis Public Health Surveillance Program - The BC Public Health Officer is working with MNBC to learn more about the population health of Métis Citizens in our province to better advocate for increased health services and financial assistance for our Citizens. To assist with this, MNBC and the BC Ministry of Health have an information sharing agreement in place. The BC Ministry of Health will always hold your personal health information as they do now. MNBC will never have access to your personal health information. MNBC will only have access to population health information in the aggregate or total. For example, 49 females between the age of 50 - 75 have been diagnosed with diabetes within Interior Health Authority. MNBC will never receive health information about any individual. That information always stays with the BC Ministry of Health. This population health information will be essential to ensure that services are accessible and culturally appropriate for Métis people. Simply stated, to address Métis health concerns, the BC Ministry of Health must know what the Nation's health priorities and concerns are. Citizens can change their decisions at any time by contacting MNBC. For more information please contact Director Tanya Davoren at health@mnbc.ca
